Copper, brickdust and terra cotta are the fashion able colors.

Watered silks are more in demand than they have been for some years. Handsome cashmeres are imported with embroidered flounces for trimming.

The Bronx River odors are becoming daily more offensive. People living near the river are obliged to close their doors and windows. The Rev. G. W. Donald, rector of the Church of the Intercession, at Washington Heights, has ac-cepted a call to the Church of the Epiphany, in Philadelphia.

ARRIVAL OF PART OF THE OPERA COMPANY.
The City of Berlin, with Mr. Maplecon and Miss Minme Hauk and Signior Ardite, of the Opera Company, on board, arrived off Sandy Hook late last night, and will come up to the city early this morning.

Richard Austin, age nineteen, the driver of a milk wagon, who lived in Tremont, was found dead in his wagon at High Bridge early yesterday morning. His body was removed to an undertaker's place in Morrisania by direction of Coroner Ellinger. A post mortem examination of the body will be made to-day to determine the cause of Austin's death.

KILLED ON A RAILROAD TRACK.

An unknown man about infty yearsold, with dark hair and tuil beard, dressed like a laborer, was run over and killed near High Bridge last evening by a train of the New-York and Northern Railroad. The body was taken to the Carmansville Police Station to await identification.

Donnelly, it is alleged, threw his wire down a flight of stairs on Saturday might. She sustained such injuries as to make it necessary to take aer to a hospital. The accused man was held to await the result of his wifes injuries.

THE APPRENTICES FREE LIBRARY.

The Apprentices Library at No. 18 East Sixteenth-st. has begun its sixty-first season under the most favorable anapices. There are now over 60,000 volumes on its shelves in the different branches of science, art and literature, to which is added as soon as published all the best books. In the past year in a circulation of 160,000 volumes am ng 8,247 readers, the library lost only 39 books. The reading room centains the best periodical literature of the day, and there is a large reference library. In the last year it was used by 80,000 persons. There is no admission fee required to the fibrary or reading room, as they are supported by the income cerived from the General Society of Mechanics and Tradesmen. It is open from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

BROOKLYN. BROOKLYN.

The police arrested on Saturday night Luigi Genovese, who is charged with stealing money and jewelry worth $300 from the trunk of Cazanager Agostino, of No. 1 Summit-st., on October 5.

Patrick Kelly, a blind boy, age ten, of No. 35 Washington st., walked into the East River, off the wharf at the foot of that street, yesterday after-noon, and was drowned. The body was recovered. At the election of officers for the 32d Regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., on Saturday, Licutenant-Colonel Louis Finkelmeier was made colonel, and Captain E. M. Wunder lieutenant-colonel.

Patrolmen McMahon and McDermott, of the Third Sub-Precinct, were knocked down and badly beaten by members of the "Smoky Hollow Gang," at Columbia-place and State-st., early yesterday morn-ing, while dispersing a crowd. They did not identify their assailants.

their assailants.

While playing billiards in the room of A. Schade, No. 202 Prospect-st., yesterday afternoon, Thomas Kelly, age twenty, of No. 115 Hudson-ave., fell quarrelling with his companion. They threw billiard bails in a promiseuous manner, and Kelly was finally driven from the room at the point of a cue, after receiving a severe blow over the head with the butt. An ambulance surgeon dressed his injuries at the York Street Police Station. When the police went in search of Kelly's assailants the billiard room was found deserted.

JERSEY CITY.

Two additional cases of smallney were recented.

Two additional cases of smallpox were reported to the police yesterday. The police made a descent at 3 o'clock yesterday morning on a disorderly house at Newark-ave, and Fourth-st, and arrested Luther Callaway, the proprietor, and five other men. They were held.

NEW-JERSEY.

PATERSON.—Policeman Feeney was in Paterson yesterday and recognized John Jackson Scott as the man whom he arrested on Wednesday night in this city. An inquest in the case will be held to-day.

LONG ISLAND. JAMAICA.—Under the operation of the Game law rabbits have mult plied and increased to such an extent on Long Island that they are beginning to annoy the farmers and gardeners by destroying cabbage, parsley and turnips. It is unlawful to shoot them until November 1.

STATEN ISLAND. NORTHFIELD.—George W. Richmend, age sixteen, in company with Edward Jones, while gunning on Saturday in the woods near Old Place, Town of Northfield, was killed by the accidental discharge of his gun. His left arm was blown off and he bled to death
